The present document has been produced by Cambridge Econometrics (Belgium) and Verian Group on behalf of the European Labour Authority. The information contained in this report does not reflect the views or the official position of the European Labour Authority.

The report is based in part on data from Eurostat, including EU Labour Force Survey, EU Statistics on Income and Living Conditions and Structure of Earnings Survey microdata scientific-use files (data request code RPP 238/2025-EU-SILC-LFS-SES). The responsibility for all conclusions drawn from these data lies entirely with the authors.

The European Labour Authority (ELA) and the authors would like to thank the European employment services (EURES), national coordination offices, ELA's national liaison officers, Eurostat, the European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions (for early access to the 2024 European Working Conditions Survey), the European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training and participants in the round-table discussions for providing key data and information as input for this report.
